

Feast of Tabernacles in Chiang Mai: October 9-15, 2014

Group Photo Feast of Tabernacles 2013 Empress Hotel

Dear Friends and Fellow-Laborers,

February 18, 2014

Legacy Institute will once again sponsor a Feast of Tabernacles site in Chiang Mai, Thailand. Local Karen tribal members from Thailand and Burma (Myanmar), as well as students and volunteer administrators and faculty from the Legacy Foundation Leadership Training Center will also be in attendance. Foreign visitors are always welcome to attend.

The Festival to honor the Millennial rule on Earth of our Lord and King Jesus the Christ will be held the full 7 days and then, the final 8th Day of the Feast will be observed. Services will be held each day. The dates of this year's Feast will be October 9-16, 2014.

Services will be held at the 4 star Empress Hotel and Convention Center in the heart of the shopping district of Chiang Mai. We have regularly held the Feast of Tabernacles at this hotel and Feast-goers are given red carpet treatment. The Empress boasts modern facilities and both Western, Chinese, Japanese and traditional Thai cuisine. Upgraded rooms and suites are luxurious and WIFI is available. Families with children are very welcome and there are lots of fun activities available and unending exotic sites to tour and experience. Chiang Mai is also a shopaholics paradise with anything available from silks and gems to silver jewelry and traditional handicrafts.

For Legacy package costs and further information, please contact mail@legacyinstitute.org.

If you want to learn more about Chiang Mai and all the things to see and do, visit <http://www.1stopchiangmai.com/>, <http://www.lonelyplanet.com/thailand/chiang-mai-province/chiang-mai>

If you want to learn more about the facilities available at the Empress Hotel and Convention Center, visit www.empresshotels.com/empress_hotel.html

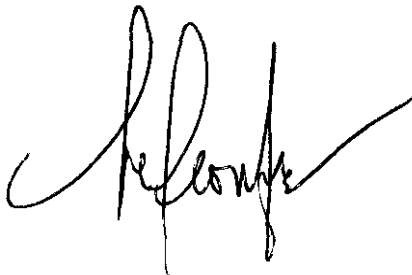

In 2014, Legacy Institute will also provide opportunities for Feast-goers: Visit to Elephant Farm, Visit to Phuping Palace, the winter palace of the King and Queen (if open to public), or one of H.M. the Queen's royal projects; Tour of umbrella making, silver jewelry and handicrafts factories and more.

There are many restaurants serving Western and Thai food close by and there are even Starbucks, McDonalds, and Burger King within walking distance. Touring the ancient city walls and moat; crumbling ruins and beautiful temples can be interesting and educational. Thailand was never colonized by a Western power such as England or France and so retains its own culture and customs. You will find the Thai people friendly and helpful. At the many shops, Night Bazaar or Sunday Market one can barter for strange and exotic handicrafts, silks, gems, jewelry and more.

Chiang Mai is a mix of ancient and modern; East and West; the strange and familiar. For further information or questions, please contact mail@legacyinstitute.org.

There is a lot to see and experience, and you will also have the opportunity to meet students and volunteer faculty at our Legacy Foundation Leadership Training Center, as well as local brethren.

Hope to see you this year in Chiang Mai,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Leon Sexton', with a long, sweeping flourish extending to the right.

Leon Sexton
Festival Director