King of the South: Ptolemaic Empire after Alexander's death (303BC).¹

King of the North: Seleucid Empire after Alexander's death (303BC).²

Dear Friends and Fellow Laborers,

20 January 2017

The Beast continues to rise. The U.N. and the E.U. are flexing their muscles as never before. Let's look at one headline: "New UN Boss Tells Europe Migration Unstoppable, Says Politicians Should Ignore Voters."³

The new Secretary-General of the United Nations is telling the Europeans and America to open their doors to Islamic migrants, even if it means giving up their national sovereignty.

Let's continue with more quotes from this article from Breitbart News:

"The incoming Secretary-General of the United Nations (UN) told a room of policymakers in Europe on Wednesday that 'migration is not the problem but the solution', and said politicians should ignore voters.

"Speaking in Lisbon at the Vision Europe Summit, António Guterres said European nations have no right to control their borders and that they must instead take in floods of the world's poorest people.

“The idea that management of migration is a matter of national sovereignty is extremely limited.

”Regarding priorities for the UN, ...Guterres said he already has ‘several items to put on the discussion table to drive positive developments’ with regards to the goal of making Europe accept more migrants.

“Guterres insisted that every European Union (EU) nation must be forced to ‘share the burden’ of mass migration.

“We must convince [Europeans] that migration is inevitable and that it is the multiethnic societies which are multicultural and multireligious who are building wealth.”

Guterres went so far as to make a veiled threat:

”Quoting Winston Churchill’s condemnation of then-Prime Minister of Britain Neville Chamberlain, in 1938, Guterres said: ‘You were given the choice between war and dishonour. You chose dishonour, and you will have war.’ ”

This is talking about apples and oranges. Churchill was talking about Neville Chamberlain caving in to Adolf Hitler. Guterres implies that—if they do not open their borders—it would demonstrate dishonor that could bring war.

The nations of Europe that are rebelling against E.U. tyranny (including Great Britain) are trying to stop the raping, burning, robbing, and killing by Islamic gangs of migrants they have ALREADY let into their countries. Added to the exploding crime is the financial burden all these millions of migrants bring as they are almost entirely on the welfare rolls.

The French and Germans are fed up and pushing back! This is easily seen by the rise of ultra-right-wing political parties rapidly gaining increasing power in governments. It will not be long before Angela Merkle is thrown out and a hard-line, anti-migrant takes her place.

In France, far right leader Marine Le Pen is on track to become the new President of France.⁴ I predict that this would mean very stringent anti-migrant laws enacted in France, struggling with all the criminal activities and financial burden that the E.U.’s open border policy brings.

In Finland, a vigilante group calling themselves the “Soldiers of Odin” (the Norse god of war) are patrolling the streets of major Finnish cities and beating up any migrant gangs who want to rape and rob. The Soldiers of Odin have expanded into Sweden, which now has the dishonor of being the rape capital of the world. The police are unable or even unwilling to deal with migrant crime, so citizens are taking matters into their own hands.

Officials in the Czech Republic are telling their citizens to arm themselves against migrants who seem to be able to get illegal weapons at will.⁵

The departure of Britain from the E.U. and the miraculous victory of Donald Trump in the American election is giving new hope to those in Europe who demand to decide their own national destinies. Now we see the core of the Charlemagne Dream (France and Germany) rebelling against the U.N. and the E.U. Great change is coming to Europe.

A major catalyst for Britain to leave the European Union was the large number of Muslim migrants the E.U. was forcing Britain to take. The Brits got fed up with nameless bureaucrats in Brussels telling them what to do and forcing them to take immigrants they didn't want. Now there is major pushback all across Europe.

Daniel's prophecy said that the King of the South would push against the King of the North and the King of the North would eventually react with extreme force against the King of the South.

“And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over.

“He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon” (Daniel 11:40-41).

This prophecy is for the end of the age. The King of the North has traditionally been the general area of Syria and Iraq. This part of the Middle East was given to Seleucus, one of the four Greek generals of Alexander. Seleucus' descendants, such as Antiochus Epiphanes, ruled as client kings under Rome.

As we understand today, Rome is the symbolic center of the modern countries that make up the old Holy Roman Empire, including Italy. Egypt is the center of the ancient Ptolemaic Empire. Ptolemy was another of Alexander's generals; he received Egypt as his portion of the empire of Alexander. Egypt symbolizes the territory of the King of the South. Under Muslim expansion, that empire expanded across northern Africa and into Spain, as well as up through the Middle East all the way into Hungary and Poland.

The push by the King of the South has happened on several historical occasions. The first was in 732 A.D. when the Moors (Muslims) invaded southern France, with their ultimate target being Rome. The Moors were stopped at the famous Battle of Tours by Charles “The Hammer” Martel, grandfather of Charlemagne.

John III Sobieski: 1768-1771⁶

The Eastern attempt to break through to Rome was by the Ottoman Turks. They were able to overcome the great walls of Constantinople and, in 1529, unsuccessfully lay siege to Vienna. They tried again to attack Vienna in 1683, but were defeated by a combined European army led by King Jan Sobieski of Poland.

It looks like the Muslims are pushing into Europe again, this time with a migrant army. Their stated goal is, once again, Rome. It is an Islamic prophecy that they will conquer Rome in the End of the Age⁷.

Do we understand that this is an apocalyptic clash of cultures? The Bible shows us an end-time clash between the North (Europe) and South (Islamic North Africa and Middle East) at the End, just before the Messiah appears.

Jerusalem will be the focus of this prophetic clash as all nations will come to hate Israel and armies will surround the Holy City.

“Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem.

“And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it” (Zechariah 12:2-3).

This is already true in the U.N. where the majority of member nations have made Israel a favorite whipping boy. The 2015 U.N. General Assembly adopted 20 resolutions against Israel and only three against the rest of the world combined! Does the world have it out for Israel? You bet!

On January 15, representatives of over 70 countries met in Paris to hold talks about peace between Israel and the Palestinians. John Kerry, outgoing U.S. President Barak Obama’s main henchman, represented the United States. The conference discussed ways towards peace between the nation of Israel and the Palestinian Authority. At least that is what we are told. There were undoubtedly other agendas behind the scenes. Apparently, nothing was resolved. Neither Israel nor the Palestinian Authority sent envoys.

Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu of Israel stated that he believed the Paris Conference was rigged against Israel. Read the article in the Jerusalem Post: Netanyahu: Paris confab 'is rigged'.⁸ Prime Minister Netanyahu had stated, “The Middle East parley scheduled in Paris on Sunday is a ‘rigged conference’ that will do nothing to promote the cause of peace.”

It reminds me of the scripture Jeremiah 8:11. “For they have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, ‘Peace, peace; when there is no peace.’ ” The U.N.’s goal, and the goal of the outgoing Obama administration, was and is to support the creation of a Palestinian State according to pre-1967 borders with East Jerusalem as its capital. This is totally unacceptable to the Jewish people who say that Jerusalem is their eternal and undivided capital of Israel.

Will the U.N. ultimately try to force Israel to give up more territory, including East Jerusalem, to create the State of Palestine? Will they resort to force of arms to do it? Will the U.S. get involved on the side of Israel? The time for the return of the Messiah is near. The pieces are being moved on the Middle East chessboard to bring about the fulfillment of all the prophecies about the End of the Age. Are you ready for this?

Gloria and I are preparing for our trip to Burma if our health is good. Please pray God blesses our trip and all we must do for our Lord. Pray for our health and remember our brethren there, who will be keeping the Spring Feast together in one location. They need our financial help to make sure the Passover and Days of Unleavened Bread are blessed as a spiritual as well as a physical Feast for all who gather in Jawk Taing, Burma.

Serving the soon-coming Savior and King,
